Executive Summary

Senate Bill 518 was signed into law by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger on October 13, 2007. This bill created the Youth Bill of Rights and mandated the Office of the Ombudsman and the Division of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) to implement several services related to the Youth Bill of Rights. It required the Office to install a toll-free-number through which youth in DJJ Facilities could contact the Office directly. The Office was required to consult with various stakeholders, including youth advocates and support groups, to develop standardized information explaining the Youth Bill of Rights, and to disseminate this information to all facilities. The Office was required to post this standardized information, including the toll-free-telephone number, in all DJJ facilities by July 1, 2008.

The Office of the Ombudsman's DJJ Hotline was implemented on July 1, 2008. Upon implementation, the Youth Bill of Rights posters were placed in all DJJ Facility living units, visiting halls, school areas, libraries, administration buildings, and other areas deemed appropriate. To date, the DJJ Ombudsman continues to monitor and ensure the distribution and placement of posters and track all calls received on the hotline.

Senate Bill 518 also required that the Office of the Ombudsman compile and make available to the legislature, and to the public, all data collected over the course of the year, including but not limited to, the number of inquiries to the toll free number, the nature of the inquiries, the actions taken to address the inquiries, and the number of inquiries not resolved. Pursuant to this requirement the following report is a compilation of the data captured for the year 2013. This report includes all inquiries made to the Office of the Ombudsman's DJJ Hotline.

This is the sixth report issued by the Office of the Ombudsman. It contains data for inquiries received via the DJJ Hotline from January 1, 2013 through December 31, 2013. However, it should be noted that, in 2013, the DJJ Hotline experienced an interruption in services. In the month of August, the Office of the Ombudsman had not received any DJJ Hotline calls. The Ombudsman made a routine visit to the DJJ Stockton Complex to check the phone line system and discovered that the toll free feature of the Hotline was not functioning. The Ombudsman made an urgent telephone call to the Enterprise Information Systems Communication (EIS) Unit who has responsibility of the Inmate Telephone System, advising them of the issue. EIS was diligent in getting the Hotline reactivated; however, unfortunately when the Hotline was reactivated, the toll free aspect of the Hotline was not enabled at the DJJ Stockton Complex. A review of the Ventura Hotline determined the Ventura Facility Hotline was working properly. Youth at the Stockton Complex were not able to call the Hotline using the payphones, as required by Senate Bill 518. The Ombudsman made contact with EIS staff a second time to apprise them that the Hotline toll free function was not working at the DJJ Stockton Complex. EIS was able to work with the contractor, Global Tel Link, to reactivate the toll free function of the DJJ Hotline at the Stockton Complex. The Hotline was not fully operational at the Stockton Complex from August 2013 through November 2013. In the interim youth continued to access the Office of the Ombudsman by requesting that calls be connected through staff phones or family members. DJJ Staff readily provided assistance and reached out to the Office of the Ombudsman.

Table A. Hotline Inquiries received by the Office of the Ombudsman's DJJ Hotline, 2008-2013

From January 1, 2013 through December 31, 2013, the Office of the Ombudsman received a total of 29 inquiries; this is a decline from last year, when the Office received 88 calls.

In calendar year 2013, DJJ continued to experience a significant population decline. Numerous legislative and regulatory changes have realigned the juvenile justice population to county jurisdiction, including post-custody release supervision. Table B shows the steady decline in DJJ population from 2008 to 2013.

Table C. Cross-Year Comparison of Rate of Hotline Inquiries received per 100 youth, 2008-2013

Based on the population decline, a simple comparison of the number of inquiries does not necessarily shed light on the youth's use of the DJJ Hotline. However, a comparison of the rate of inquiries per 100 youth provides more insight into the youth's access of Ombudsman services [see Table C]. In 2013, the youth accessed the Hotline at a rate of 12.09 calls per 100 youth. This is a slight increase from last year, when the Hotline received 11.43 calls per 100 youth.

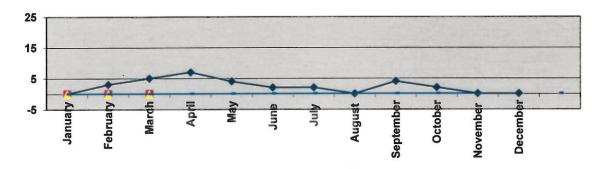

Table D. 2013 DJJ Hotline Inquiries per Month

The average number of inquiries received per month from the Office of the Ombudsman was 2.4. The highest number of inquiries was received in the month of April (7).

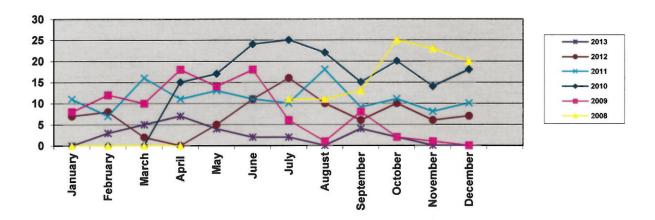

Table E. Comparison by Year of DJJ Hotline Inquiries per Month

A cross-year comparison of calls received per month demonstrates calls increased in the summer months in previous years.

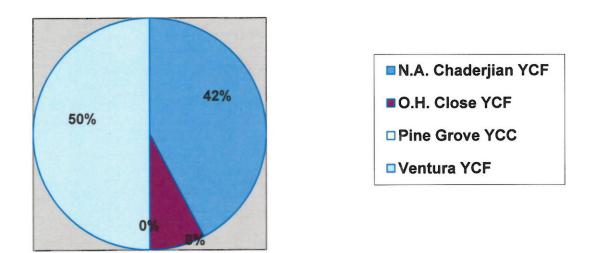

Table F. Percentage of DJJ Hotline Inquiries by Facility

The greatest numbers of total inquiries received were related to concerns at the Ventura Youth Correctional Facility (13 calls; 50% of total inquiries) and NA Chaderjian Youth Facility (11 calls; 42% of total inquiries). The least number of inquiries were received from O.H Close Youth Correctional Facility (2 calls;, 8% of total inquiries). Zero (0) calls were received from the Pine Grove Youth Conservation Camp in 2013.

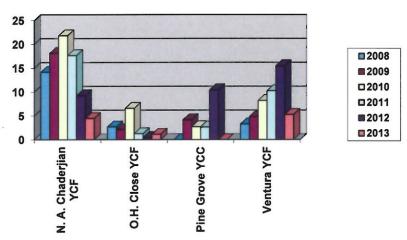

Table G. Cross-Year Comparison of Rate of Inquiries per 100 youth

Since 2011, the DJJ population began to decline, and because of the decrease in population the rate of inquiries per facility, not population, has decreased. During the 2013, three of the Youth Facilities experienced a significant decrease of inquiries. N. A. Chaderjian had a decrease of inquiries by -4.77, Pine Grove Youth Correctional Facility by -10.45, and Ventura Youth Correctional Facility by -10.23. On the other hand, the rate of inquiries slightly increased by +.65 at the O.H. Close Youth Correctional Facility.

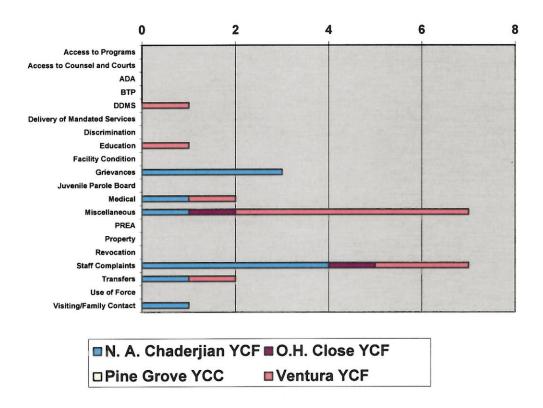

Table H. DJJ Hotline Inquiries by Issue Category and by Facility

The greatest number of inquiries were in the areas of Staff Complaints and Miscellaneous, which combined, received fourteen (14) total calls; seven (7) calls in each area. The Staff Misconduct Complaint System is similar to the Youth Grievance System in that the Youth can receive assistance from the Youth Grievance Clerk, Facility Youth Grievance Coordinator, and Staff Assistant with filing a complaint against a DJJ staff member. The complaint includes a written statement of allegations when the Youth perceives a staff member violated policy. Staff Complaints are taken very seriously and after a thorough review the Youth will receive a written response of the decision. The Miscellaneous Category includes calls in which not enough information is provided by the youth regarding the nature of their concern, or items that do not fall under any other specific category in this report; such as calls received regarding meals, or extra privileges. Face to face interviews are completed with the youth to determine the issues and they are resolved.

In 2010, the Office created a new category to capture inquiries relating to the Behavior Treatment Program (BTP). BTP is a program designed to meet the mandates of Farrell v. Cate by providing "intensive treatment interventions for youth who demonstrate violent, disruptive aggressive behavior and who do not meet the criteria for intensive mental health treatment or a higher level of mental health care." One of the main functions of the DJJ Ombudsman is responding to concerns regarding the BTP at the DJJ Facilities. The Ventura Youth Correctional Facilities (VYCF) had two (2) BTP Living Units and each BTP Unit could house up to twenty-four (24) Youth for a total population of forty-eight (48) Youth living on the BTP. As of late (2013), one BTP Living Unit was converted into a High Core Living Unit, therefore decreasing the Youth population housed within the BTP. The reduction of the BTP population is a huge accomplishment as it equates to less Youth in need of the more intensive treatment because of their violent or aggressive behavior. The Youth who are housed on the High Core Unit are appropriately placed based upon their core treatment/rehabilitation program needs, consistent with the Youth's custody classification. The High Core Unit also consists of Youth who have successfully transitioned from the BTP.

In January of 2012, the Office received calls from youth regarding conditions of confinement, as well as allegations of excessive use of force at the Ventura BTP. During this time, the BTP was placed on numerous modified programs due to a wave of assaults on staff. To respond to these calls, and at the request of Undersecretary, DJJ Ombudsman Rosalez and Chief Ombudsman Malone visited the Ventura Youth Correctional Facility on January 17-18, 2012, to interview the youth and provide feedback to the Superintendent of Ventura and to Director Mike Minor regarding the allegations.

At the request of the Undersecretary and Director, this visit was to become a regular occurrence. In February of 2012, the Division of Juvenile Justice submitted a Corrective Action Plan (CAP) to the Farrell court stipulating that "On a monthly basis, the CDCR Ombudsman will visit VYCF." Pursuant to the CAP, the DJJ Ombudsman visited the BTPs monthly, issuing regular reports to the Ventura Superintendent, Director Minor and the Undersecretary. Initial reports documented various concerns received from the Youth regarding mandated services (school, recreation, counseling, food, and clothing) and included allegations regarding excessive use of force and group punishment. Every month the reports covered the concerns of the Youth and the steps staff were making towards improvement and resolution of the issues. The reports progressively improved each month. By July of 2012, the Ombudsman was able to document an informed and educated youth population on the verge of making the shift from an entrenched attitude regarding incarceration towards a collaborative, albeit guarded, step toward rehabilitation. During 2013 the Ombudsman continued to make regular visits to the BTP. The Ombudsman checked in with youth on the BTP and each trip the youth did not report any major complaints, and the incidents of staff assaults on the BTP had significantly decreased. Although the youth on the BTP continue to display aggressive behavior characteristic of the kind of offenders housed within the BTP, the staff at Ventura must be commended for transforming the culture of this unit so profoundly. During 2013, the DJJ Hotline received no phone calls related to the BTP.

All inquiries received via the Youth Hotline were resolved. One (1) of the inquiries remained unresolved because the Youth did not provide any sufficient information so that the Youth could be identified.

The DJJ Ombudsman continues to visit all DJJ facilities. During these visits the Ombudsman monitors the placement of the Youth Bill of Rights Posters and educates and informs the youth, individually and in group settings, of the Youth Bill of Rights and their right to contact the Office of the Ombudsman.
